Rashantha de Silva

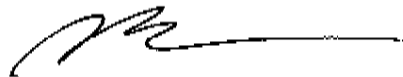

Dear Mr. de Silva,

We have learned that you have used contact information obtained as a result of your relationship with Sri Lanka Foundation. Such contact information is confidential and proprietary trade secret information, your use of which is both a crime and a ground of civil liability for money damages and injunctive relief. You must immediately cease all use of this and any other confidential information, and return to my client all originals and copies (including those in electronic form) which are currently in your possession.

You must also immediately cease all communication with Dr. Jayasinghe and his family members. All such communication must be through me. Any violation will result in an immediate court action for a restraining order and litigation for damages for the emotional distress inflicted.

Moreover, the transmission of unwanted pornographic material carries its own criminal and civil liability, in addition to that imposed by your use of confidential information.

Sincerely,

Paul Bloom
